EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes.

PLENARY INDULGENCE DURING NOVEMBER

Christ won saving grace for us on the cross. That grace is given to His Church as a treasury. It comes to us through the Sacraments, the Scriptures, priest blessings, etc. Another way is through an indulgence, which is the remission of the temporal punishment due to sin. When I sin, Christ forgives me in Confession, but I am still responsible in justice to pay for the damage I've done. That's called temporal punishment. An indulgence takes that away. It is not a game for those who want some kind of freebie. It's for people who already love the Lord and are striving for holiness.

Due to Covid, our Holy Father has made it possible for us to receive an Indulgence on any day in November. Our Father would want us to devoutly visit a Church, pray the Our Father, the Creed, and for the Pope's intentions, and to go to confession and communion the week before or after that day.

For the homebound the conditions are to unite yourself spiritually to the members of the faithful while being detached from sin, to have the intention of confession and communion even though you can't go, pray for the Pope's intentions and spend time offering another form of prayer ideally before an image of Jesus or Mary.

We thank our Holy Father for making these graces available to us during these difficult times.

Peace, Fr. Chuck
