FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God’s very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God’s mouth. In Mark’s Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God’s own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today’s Gospel we learn that Jesus’ fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn’t an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God’s purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God’s very words filling our mouths.

SACRED HEART PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a diverse, multi-cultural Roman Catholic Parish. Relying on the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we endeavor to build the kingdom of God through liturgy, prayer, education and outreach to those in need. We come together as a faith community to celebrate life’s joys and sorrows and minister to all who come to us.

Prayers for Strength and Healing If you wish to add someone to the prayer concerns for the sick, please gain permission from the patient before calling the Parish Office. Thank you.

Please remember in your prayers, the sick and their caregivers:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One form of the penitential rite at the beginning of Mass is the traditional Confiteor, or “I confess,” a prayer that was formerly prayed by the priest alone at the foot of the altar, but which is now prayed by the entire assembly. The Confiteor is at once personal—“I confess”—and communal, prayed aloud, together. We recognize that sin does not just separate us from God; sin comes between us and others, isolating us. We acknowledge that sin has many dimensions, individual and communal: sins of thought, sins of speech, sins of action, sins of omission. Sin is not something that happens to us; sin is something we do. In the Confiteor, we take responsibility for our own actions. The repeated insistence on our “fault,” with the ritual gesture of striking the breast, an ancient sign of penitence, is not meant to lower our self-esteem. Rather, it acknowledges our human instinct to transfer the blame whenever we can (“The devil made me do it!”). This prayer stops us short. We take responsibility for ourselves, our actions, our failure to act. Then we cry out to God in those ancient words, Kyrie, eleison—Lord, have mercy. For the sinner who repents, there is mercy. This truth is at the heart of our faith, and it is where the Mass, our feast of faith, begins.

Holy Father’s Intentions for the Month of January:

Intention for evangelization - Human fraternity
May the Lord give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions, praying for one another, open to all.

ON FiRE: Keep the Light Bright – Into the Desert

Join us on Saturday, February 20th from 2pm to 4pm for ON FiRE: Keep the Light Bright "Into the Desert" is a Lenten experience for teens where we reflect on Sunday's Gospel as Jesus wanders into the desert and emerges with a mission. Similarly, the pandemic is the desert experience that challenges us—youth and young adults—to be the disciples that our friends, families, and society need. We must emerge with the mission of proclaiming the good news of God. Our afternoon will feature Rhyam Ramirez, Deacon Victor Taglianetti and the SFOA Band (from the Diocese of San Jose). Get more information at www.onfirenorcal.com or contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org

WEEKEND MASSES

Tehama County remains Tier 1: Widespread Risk amid the coronavirus pandemic, meaning that places of worship and cultural ceremonies are open outdoors only with modifications. The Diocese and our parishes remain supportive of and continue to abide by our various county health directives.

We publicly celebrate Weekend Masses at the Parish Hall under the approved so-called "drive-in" protocol; worshipers remain in their vehicles. Mass is broadcast on the Parish Hall campus (only) via FM radio. Please pre-register for Mass at <https://www.sacredheartredbluff.org/register-for-mass/>

Sunday Mass is 10 am in English and 12 pm in Spanish. Confessions are Saturdays from 3:30 pm to 5 pm in the Church. Sunday Mass is also pre-recorded for viewing on the parish website on Sunday mornings by 7:20 am.

Job opening: North State Coordinator, Office of Family & Faith Formation

The Diocese of Sacramento Office of Family & Faith Formation seeks a tech-savvy, dynamic, collaborative, self-starter to support and invigorate parish ministry in the four Northern deaneries of the Diocese of Sacramento. The North State Coordinator is responsible for supporting the north state deans in pastoral planning and collaboration between parishes; supporting parish faith formation, evangelization and youth ministry efforts; supporting parishes in the use of technology, social media and the internet for pastoral ministry, catechesis and evangelization; and supporting the development of competent lay leadership. Ideal candidate is bilingual, English & Spanish, has at least 5 years' experience in parish and/or diocesan ministry, understands the reality of northern California rural ministry, and has excellent communication, social media and marketing skills. This is a full time position with benefits.

To apply for a position, please email a short cover letter, resume, and application to personnel@scd.org. Positions are open until filled. For more information, visit www.scd.org/employment.
