THE GOOD NEWS

Today's readings begin with a few verses from the book of Job. First, Job complains that his nights drag on endlessly. Then, worse yet, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; / they come to an end without hope" (Job 7:6). Not exactly encouraging, these lamentations, not when taken alone.

Most of us have been there, though, and the antidote is the "good news" that Paul found so compelling that "an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" (1 Corinthians 9:16). Paul felt driven to announce the gospel to as many people as possible, "to save at least some" (9:22).

This good news is the mystery of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who lifted Simon Peter's mother-in-law from her sickbed with a mere touch of his hand. "The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons" (Mark 1:33-34)). Our woes and demons are as real as Job's, and Jesus is our savior.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gloria, or Glory to God, follows the penitential rite. Both are acts of praise. In the penitential rite, we sing of the mercy of Christ. In the Gloria we praise God's saving action in the universe.

The Gloria is a relatively late addition to the Mass. It first appeared in the Roman liturgy in the sixth century, and then it was sung only by the pope—and only on Christmas! With time, the hymn came to be sung by bishops on major feasts, and then by priests; finally, it became the song of the entire assembly. With the advent of more elaborate musical settings, the people gradually stopped singing the Gloria, until this song of the people became the exclusive domain of the priest and the choir. But the liturgical reforms have restored it to its place as primarily the song of the assembly.

The language of the Gloria echoes the New Testament canticles. It may be begun by the priest, the cantor, and the entire assembly in varied combinations. The Gloria is sometimes called the "greater doxology," and in some ways it is like an extended, ecstatic version of the familiar doxology ("Glory be to the Father") prayed in the Divine Office and the rosary.

Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of February:

Violence Against Women

We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

ON FiRE: Keep the Light Bright – Into the Desert

Join us on Saturday, February 20th from 2pm to 4pm for ON FiRE: Keep the Light Bright "Into the Desert" is a Lenten experience for teens where we reflect on Sunday's Gospel as Jesus wanders into the desert and emerges with a mission. Similarly, the pandemic is the desert experience that challenges us—youth and young adults—to be the disciples that our friends, families, and society need. We must emerge with the mission of proclaiming the good news of God. Our afternoon will feature Rhyam Ramirez, Deacon Victor Taglianetti and the SFOA Band (from the Diocese of San Jose). Get more information at www.onfirenorcal.com or contact Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@scd.org

Your Gift Matters – annual Catholic Appeal

On the weekend of February 20, we will have the opportunity to walk with others as Jesus asks us to do. Together as Catholics, we extend our hand to those who need help. We assist them beyond dire circumstances and to begin again, refreshed and renewed. As our communities overcome the paralyzing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, let us accompany those in physical and emotional poverty.

Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, really does make a difference in someone's life. Please prayerfully consider what you can give this year.

Thank You

Sacred Heart Parish wishes to acknowledge the steadfast support of our team of volunteer "drive-in" protocol parking attendants who have, from the onset, made these weekend public celebrations of Mass possible. We especially want to thank the mainstays of the parking lot Masses:

10 am Mass:

- Greg Wright
- Kieran Kelley
- Steve Macy

12 pm Mass:

- Juan (Jose) Trenado
- Juan Rosales
- Hector Rodriguez

The Parish is indeed indebted to all the lay ministry volunteers who have stepped up their service to our faith community over the past challenging 10 months.
