REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today’s readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter’s letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: “Repent, and believe in the gospel” (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today is the First Sunday of Lent. During this season of preparation for Easter, our churches look stark and simple—no flowers at the altar, no festive banners or decorations. And our liturgies feel different, too. The organ is quiet except to accompany the singing of the assembly. The Gloria, our Sunday song of rejoicing, is not heard except on solemnities, and we will not sing the Alleluia, our joyful acclamation of praise, until the Easter Vigil. “Alleluia cannot always / Be our song while here below,” says an eleventh-century hymn. “Alleluia our transgressions / Make us for a while forego; / For the solemn time is coming / When our tears for sins must flow” (Alleluia dulce carmen, J. M. Neale, trans.).

These changes in the liturgy will catch our attention, and make us eager for the festive outpouring of joy that will return with Easter. This year, may the stripped-away liturgies of Lent remind us to strip away what is not essential in our lives to make space for the crucified and risen One, and thus to be ready to sing “Alleluia” once again when Easter returns.

Your Gift Matters – Annual Catholic Appeal

We may not be social workers, yet through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the whole Catholic community leans in to help our Catholic charities and our own parish to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of hardships of poverty.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, as our communities pulled together to overcome the paralyzing effects of COVID- 19 pandemic, 362,000 people were helped through Appeal-funded charitable works. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

Tu regalo importa

Puede que no seamos trabajadores sociales, pero a través de la Campaña Católica Anual, toda la comunidad católica se inclina para ayudar a nuestras organizaciones benéficas católicas y a nuestra propia parroquia a mantener programas y ministerios que ayudan a sacar a nuestros vecinos y amigos de las dificultades de la pobreza.

La Campaña Católica Anual está dedicada exclusivamente a la misión social de la Iglesia aquí en el norte de California. El año pasado, cuando nuestras comunidades se unieron para superar los efectos paralizantes de la pandemia de COVID-19, se ayudó 362,000 personas a través de obras de caridad financiadas por Appeal. Por favor sé tan generoso como puedas. Cada regalo marca una gran diferencia en la vida de alguien.
